

Nauzad Sadry

Bollywood Pop

Hindi

Nauzad Sadry is a well known singer hailing from Irvine, California who is more influenced by Bollywood than most people in India.

Under the baton of music maestro Jatin Pandit, he has prepared an original pop album, a first of its kind, exclusively for the Desi Janta of USA and India. His songs are very peppy and melodic composed by the famous Bollywood Composer which creates an instant familiarity inspite of being unknown to the Indian market.

Currently one of the busiest performers in the USA when it comes to the Indian Diaspora, Nauzad presents songs from his collection which includes two duets with his sister, Khushi.

Nauzad comes on board transcending all geographical barriers using the digital space as a global platform.

According to Nauzad, "After entertaining the audiences in this part of the Globe with my Bollywood flavor, I felt it was only natural to reach out to music lovers around the world who with my music. New age destinations like ArtistAloud.com are the future of distribution of original content and gives Independent Artists a platform to put out songs that are unique and one-of-a-kind."

Nauzad Sadry has been hand picked by ArtistAloud.com to join a group of passionate individuals showcasing music that is close to their heart.
