

Sharad Jagtiani

Alternative Pop

Hindi

Sharad Jagtiani is an artist who is proving to be a complete entertainer. He started off as a model and got into acting in serials and films. His dream to be a singer and composer of his own songs was something he never expected to see fulfilled although he had worked on tunes as far as back as when he was in college.

The platform of ArtistAloud.com was in search of talent that is honest, untapped and raw and that is what was seen in Sharad. A true musician who creates his music from the heart and sings it with his soul.

As for Sharad, he believes, “I am with ArtistAloud.com because of their belief in the concept of singles which means that each song will get its due and secondly, they gave me complete freedom to work on my song the way I wanted too, which meant that each song came pure from the depth of my life.”

Sharad Jagtiani has been hand picked by ArtistAloud.com to join a group of passionate individuals showcasing music that is close to their heart.
