

Ujjayinee Roy

Alternative Pop

Hindi

Ujjayinee Roy entered the music scene quite late in her life as a contestant on Channel [v]'s Popstar but she is sure finding her place in the music industry pretty quickly.

Based in Chennai she has managed to create a niche for herself in the Tamil market in spite of being a Bengali recording quite regularly for A.R. Rahman and other famous Music Directors.

Writing has been her passion right from her childhood though now her vocation has been converted into her second profession. She has written numerous songs in Hindi, English, Bengali and Urdu and has also worked on a few film scripts.

She comes on board ArtistAloud.com with self composed music in Hindi with a very Independent style. Her music showcases her vocal talents to the hilt and has an instant connect with the clubbing youth of today. In Ujjayinee's words, "This is a very good platform for me to showcase my work, which I think it's little different and here I get an opportunity to share it with all. Thanks to ArtistAloud.com"

Ujjayinee Roy has been hand picked by ArtistAloud.com to join a group of passionate individuals showcasing music that is close to their heart.
